

WE'VE DONE
A LOT WITH HP.
WE'D LIKE TO DO EVEN MORE.

We go way back.

We have been working with HP on many strategic initiatives and a variety of product launches. We're brand makers from Silicon Valley who understand the HP brand. And we know how you like to work.

Our teams work across disciplines and we do it in a way that is agile and efficient. We value innovation and collaboration. We respect budgets and deadlines. And we strive to meet your goals. Or do even better.

BRAND-BASED SOLUTIONS.

REBRAND

Integrating after a merger or acquisition? Repositioning to stay competitive? There are many reasons to consider rebranding to stay relevant. Liquid's strategic approach ensures that the creative expression will reverberate throughout your business, inspiring employees, customers, and shareholders for years to come.

BRAND LAUNCH

Introducing a new product or service, an entirely new company, or extending an existing brand? Liquid can help you plan and design a comprehensive approach to introducing a new brand to current or new customers while delivering a memorable and compelling brand experience.

BRAND EXPERIENCE ALIGNMENT

Challenged in creating a coherent brand experience for your customers across the ever increasing touchpoints? Liquid can align your brand strategy and touchpoints, so that you can strengthen the bond between your brand and customers.

BRAND CULTURE

Do your employees understand and embrace the importance of your brand and how it translates to them individually and collectively? Liquid designs strategies and engagement programs so that employees can deliver on a brand's promise and create an authentic experience for your customers.

DIGITAL FIRST

Is the primary way people interact with your business through a digital experience? Liquid can help you design your digital first experience to ensure that you are creating an authentic and differentiated brand that will create fans out of your customers.

2010 REBRAND

HP LOGO

We optimized the HP corporate logo, ensuring that the details in the typography were engineered to perfection, which is what you would expect from a brand known for its heritage of amazing engineering.

DIMENSIONAL LOGO
BACKGROUND CONTROL: CONTRAST

The preferred backgrounds for our logo are white and black, however in some cases it is necessary to use the logo over tinted or colored backgrounds. The Dimensional HP Circle Logo has been carefully designed to stand out on a wide variety of shades of black. When necessary to reproduce the logo on color backgrounds, please carefully consider how to achieve maximum contrast and legibility for the HP Circle Logo.

DIMENSIONAL LOGO
BACKGROUND CONTROL: PATTERNS

The preferred backgrounds for our logo are simple and clean, however in some cases it is necessary to use the logo over backgrounds that include a pattern or an image.

In these cases, it is extremely important to evaluate which version of the logo should be used to ensure maximum contrast and optimal legibility for the HP Circle Logo.

Please avoid using the logo on busy or distracting patterns that can interfere with the legibility of the logo.

2010 ADVERTISING

THE COMPUTER IS PERSONAL AGAIN

Back in 2010, HP introduced a line up of computers as distinctive as the audiences for whom they were intended. To promote them we created an advertising insert that was placed in major media publications, including Time magazine's annual Person of the Year issue.

2011 RETAIL

HOLIDAY

For the 2011 holiday season we designed a retail merchandising campaign featuring seasonally inspired images that highlighted the best features of HP's computing solutions with humor and warmth.

2012 BRAND LAUNCH

SPECTRE

Liquid was tapped to design the brand identity for HP's first multi-surface glass notebook. We delivered an award winning logo, a sophisticated visual style, a complete photography library, and more.

LIFESTYLE PHOTOGRAPHY EFFECTS

THE FLARE EFFECT. The flare effect is unique to Spectre imagery only and is provided with the following considerations and most delicate creative execution: (A) identifiable light source and a (B) halo flare, (C) no more than 4 flares visible along flare path, (D) the flare path should not to dominate the overall composition. (E) the product remains here with an eclipse flare and (F) highlight flare.

THE FLARE EFFECT

Web, video, animations, or any other motion graphics using a flare should still follow the still imagery guidelines: (A) identifiable light source and a (B) halo flare, (C) no more than 4 flares visible along flare path, (D) the flare path should not to dominate the overall composition. (E) the product remains here with an eclipse flare and (F) highlight flare.

2012 RETAIL

BACK-TO-SCHOOL

HP asked us to develop the photographic assets needed to support its back-to-school retail campaign efforts. We art directed the photoshoots, developing a library of images that connects to the youth market the brand wanted to influence. Warm and dynamic, the photos are reflective of the lifestyle and attitudes of today's active college-age students.

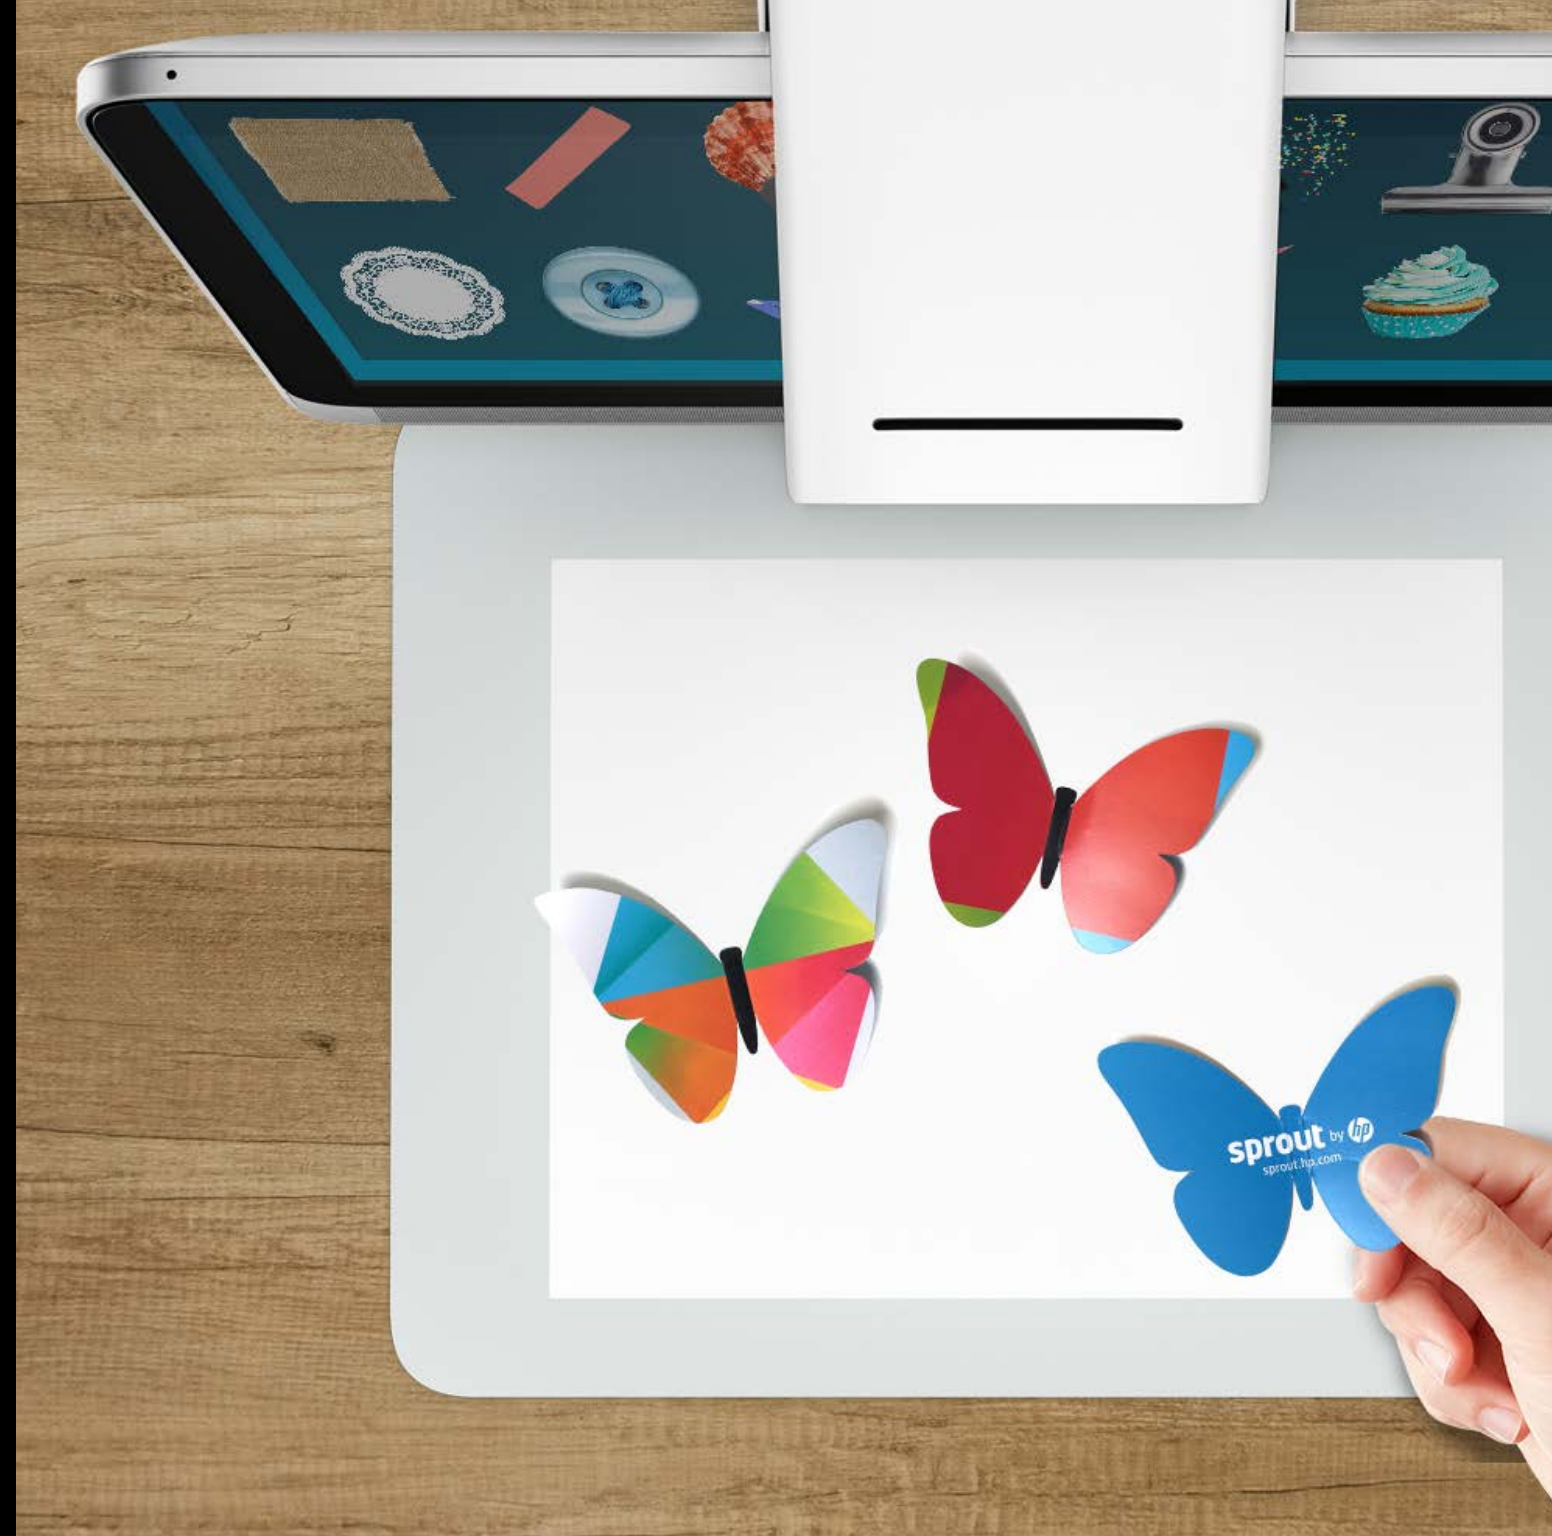

2014 BRAND LAUNCH

SPROUT

Sprout introduced a whole new dimension to computing. And we were happy to help launch it in the retail channel, a project that included the design of retail merchandising displays, videos, packaging and the out-of-box experience as well as the product's website destination.

HP MOBILITY

We were asked to communicate HP's leadership in mobile business technology. We designed a website that showcases HP's transformative, industry-leading products and services, offering a whole new perspective on mobility.

HP Mobility

Built for the ways you work

HP Mobility can change the way work gets done with transformative, industry-leading products and services that streamline workflows and enhance customer interactions.

79% of global CIOs see mobility as a revenue generator*

84% of global businesses say mobility will improve customer interactions*

*Accenture 2013 CIO Mobility Survey

“Mobility will be a paradigm shift on the same order of magnitude as the industry’s move from mainframes to client/server, and client/server to Internet. Mobility for businesses isn’t just a device plus an app or adopting BYOD scenarios; it’s about businesses using purpose-built devices and industry-specific solutions that combined have the power to enable a workplace transformation.”
